9. The renewal of Planning Permission for the buildings is issued in accordance with the provisions of the Town & Country Planning Act, 1971 and the rules made there under. This provision does not cover the Structural Stability aspect of the building including the safety during the construction. However, these aspects are covered under the provisions of the Local Bodies Act.
 As far as the Structural Stability aspect of the building is concerned, it falls within the jurisdiction of the Local Body concerned as stated in the connected Building Rules under the respective Local Body Act 1920, such as Madras City Municipal Corporation Act 1919, Tamil Nadu District Municipality Act and Tamil Nadu Panchayat Act. However, it is the sole responsibility of the Applicant / Developer / Power Agent and the Structural Engineer / Licensed Surveyor / Architect who has signed in the plan to ensure the safety during construction and after construction and also for its continued structural stability of the buildings.
10. Issuance of Planning Permission by CMDA under the statutory provisions does not confirm any ownership or title over the property, in favor of the applicant. Before issuing planning permission for any development, CMDA in this regard, checks only the aspect of applicant's right over the site under reference to make the development thereon based on the copies of the documents (such as Sale Deed, Patta, Lease Deed, Gift Deed etc., and GPA) furnished by the applicant along with his /her application to prove the same. Thus, CMDA primarily consider only the aspect on whether the applicant prima facie has a right to carry out development on the site under reference.

Any person who acquires interest in the property shall ensure independently about the ownership and the applicant's right before acquiring the same. Further, if any individual claim right (or) title over the property he/she they shall have to prove it before the appropriate / competent Court to decide on the ownership or get the matter settled in the Court of Law and CMDA is not the competent authority to decide on this matter.

11. All other conditions imposed in the Planning Permission issued earlier in the reference 13th cited holds good for this renewal of Planning Permission.
