

make any construction in 11.31 acres wherein the first phase of the project executed. Aggrieved by the Orders of the Single Bench Judge, the Association filed a Writ Appeal in Appeal No.1603 of 2017 and the Writ Appeal is pending and there are no specific interim orders.

The project application received from the Respondent is in order and also there is no court stay against registration of the project. The complainant has not made out valid grounds for refusing registration of the project. Hence, the application of Central Government Employees Welfare Housing Organisation from registering Phase-II of this project is in order and is approved, overruling the objections of the complainant. The complainant is free to pursue other remedies under the applicable law.
